

SPECIAL SERVICES FOR GOOD FRIDAY IN CITY CHURCHES

Music a Prominent Feature of Day's Observance in New York.

Devoted with the grief and sorrow of sorrow, worshippers will gather in Christian churches today.

In the Cathedral of St. Patrick there will be a procession at 10 o'clock with a palm procession by the Rev. H. F. Mc Guire. Tomorrow service begins at 4 P. M. and at 11 will be lands and lamenta tions, with special music by boys from the Kingsbridge Orphan Asylum. The Cathedral quartet, directed by John J.
O'Connor of the cathedral choir, will sing
"Tenebrae," "Surge" and "Memento Domini." The address at 5 will be made by the Rev. W. B. Martin.

At the Cathedral of St. John the Di vine, Dean Grosvenor will deliver the address at 11 and Canon Nelson at 4:30, followed by evening prayer at 8 o'clock.
The Good Friday services at Trinity yearly attract thousands of downtown men and women and tourists besides the regular parishioners. The Rev. Dr. Man ning will conduct the service from 12 to 1.

"The Man of Sorrows," a passion can tata composed by Charles W. Pearce, will be rendered under the direction of Edmund Jacques at 8 o'clock in St.
Paul's Chapel, Broadway and Vesey Street, the choir to be assisted by Mrs.
Henrietta Foster Wescott and Benjamin R. Berry.

The Rev. W. H. Vibbert will preach at Trinity Chapel in the morning, the Rev.
J. Wilson Sutton taking the three-hour service. Services in St. Augustine's Chapel will begin at 6:30, 7:30, 9 (in Italian), 10 A. M.; three hours devotion from noon to 2, children's service at 4, vespers at 5 (in Italian), with St. John's Crucifixion at 8 o'clock. Dr. Gates will conduct the three-hour services at the Chapel of the Intercession and there will be the usual number of services at St. Chrysostom's Chapel.

STAINERS' "CRUCIFIXION" AT CHURCH OF HOLY APOSTLES.
Stainer's Crucifixion will also be sung at the Church of the Holy Apostles at 8 under the direction of Winfield Scott Wardell Jr.

Father Leeper at St. Paul's, Brook lyn, will preach the Passion from 12 to 3. There will be other services at 7:30, 9, 10:45 A. M., 4 P. M., and a mission address at 8 o'clock.

Canon Chase will conduct the three-hour service at Christ Church, and at 8 there is to be a stereopticon record of Jesus' Early Life.

Seven churches will unite in a ser vice of three hours at the Bedford Pres byterian Church, Nostrand Avenue and Dean Street, Brooklyn, addresses to be made by the pastors of the congrega tions, including the Rev. Dr. Campbell, Jr., Rhoades, Burrell, Cushman, Car son and Young.

Presbyterians will worship at the Brick Church at services to be con ducted by the Rev. Dr. Merrill at 12:30 and at 1 o'clock, the women of the church offering special music.
Dr. Merrill will also preach at the ves per service at 8:30 o'clock, which will include a recital by Mr. Dickinson, Miss Rose Bryant, Colonel Evans and Dr. Kelwin will conduct divine wor ship at the West End Church at 8 o'clock at the same hour Dr. Watson will deliver a sermon in the Scotch Presbyterian Church. The offering received at this service will represent self-denial by the members of the congregation.

In the Church of the Strangers the Rev. Paul Mansfield will celebrate the Passion Hour, beginning at 3 o'clock.

All the week there have been two services at Old John Street M. E.
Church, which will end to-day with ad dresses at 1 and 2 o'clock by the Rev.
Dr. S. Parks Cushman. For the first time
St. Andrew's M. E. Church will observe Good Friday, from noon until 3 o'clock, by services at which the Seven Sayings of the Cross will be presented by visiting ministers of various denominations.

MUSIC GREATER PART OF COL LEGIATE CHURCH SERVICES.
Music will form the greater part of the services in the Collegiate Church, the Lenten cantata "Gethsemane," by C.
Lee Williams, will be rendered by the choir of the Marble Church at 1 P. M.
The Rev. Dr. MacLeod will preach at the Church of St. Nicholas at the same hour, and the following musical programme will be rendered: Prelude, Chopin; an them, "Is It Nothing to You, Foster; of feratory, "Was Despaired; Handel's con tralto solo, postlude, Lamentation, Guil mant. The Rev. Dr. Cobb will close his series of 5 o'clock addresses in the West End Avenue Church with a brief talk on Nicomachus, the secret disciple. Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Hamilton Grange Church at 8 o'clock.

In the Washington Heights Baptist Church, One Hundred and Forty-fifth Street and Convent Avenue, from 12 o'clock noon until 3 o'clock, will be heard seven speakers, each representing a de nomination. They are Rev. Nicholas Boydton, Clinton Avenue Congrega tional Church; Rev. Harold Patterson, Washington Heights Baptist Church; Rev. F. H. Knobel, Lutheran Church of Atonement; Rev. John Huntington, Em manuel Church; Rev. Frank Oliver, Hill Universalist Church; Rev. Charles H.
Stewart, North Reformed Church; Rev.
Wallace MacMillen, Methodist, Drew Theological Seminary.
